

The prisoner is being uncooperative – perhaps it's time for some “advanced interrogation techniques.” I mean, within the bounds of the law.

Puzzle #5-C

FULL NAME: PETER SUMMERS
DOB: APRIL 16TH 1981

CURRENT RESIDENCE: UNKNOWN
CRIMINAL RECORD: PETTY LARCENY

Subject was apprehended at the police station this morning. He had broken into a secure area and stolen one of The Professor's confiscated items. By the time we had apprehended him he had already hidden the item on the premises. We don't know where yet. He's being kept here for questioning as long as we can keep him. We know his lawyer is Arnie Greenbach, but either by misunderstanding of the law or defiance on his part, he has not officially asked for his lawyer. So we can keep questioning him all night and we're in the clear! Anyways, it seems likely that he has been hired by The Gardener, but we don't know how, or why.

Biographical info: Most early life he lived in the small town of Riverwood. Apparently everyone in town went to a Ferguson School. Not much is known about his time there. The suspect seems very reluctant to give any information relevant to the investigation -he's a tough nut to crack. However, he very often gets nostalgic and starts talking about his childhood in Riverwood and what seems like signs of childhood trauma.

FINAL ROOM	M	N
	Z	E	R	O
	S	I	X
07 OF 13

THE WARRIOR FIGURINE IS IN THE SAME ROW AND/OR THE SAME COLUMN AS ANOTHER OBJECT, BUT IS NOT IN THE SAME ROW OR COLUMN AS THE ORNATE CASKET. THERE ARE EXACTLY 3 OBJECTS IN EVEN-NUMBERED BOXES.